

DR. ISAAC K. FUNK, MILLIONAIRE AND PSYCHIST, DEAD

Author, Clergyman, Publisher and Spiritist, Known the World Over.

LED MYSTIC RESEARCH.

Liberal Backed Prof. Hyslop and Defended "Bishop" May Pepper.

Dr. Isaac K. Funk, psychic expert, author, simplified speller, millionaire publisher and clergyman, died at his Montclair home to-day following an attack of acute indigestion. He was seventy-three years old and is survived by a son and a daughter.

Ever since Dr. Funk took up the investigation of psychical phenomena and became a constant attendant at spiritualistic seances he had been widely known as one of the few distinguished leaders in this field. His book, "The Psychic Riddle," published in 1907, was discussed the world over and brought him even more fame than "The Widow's Mite and Other Psychic Phenomena."

BACKER OF PSYCHICAL RE-SEARCH AND SPIRITISTS.

For years Dr. Funk was the most prominent backer of Prof. James H.
Hyslop of the Society of Psychical Research, and he believed in the high purpose and attended the seances of Mrs. May S. Pepper-Vanderbilt of the First Spiritual Church of Brooklyn—"Bishop Pepper," as she sometimes called herself while invoking the spirits of Red Light and Little Bright Eyes.
Dr. Funk also won fame as one of the ardent crusaders in behalf of simplified spelling, notwithstanding that he, as the head of the firm of Funk & Wagnalls, was the publisher of the Standard Dictionary.

Nine years ago Dr. Funk made the startling announcement that he had conversed with the spirit of his old friend, Henry Ward Beecher, at a private seance in Brooklyn. Two years later he made an elaborate defense of Mrs. May Pepper when that widely advertised spiritualist was charged with employing trick and device at her seances.

HAD TAKEN DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF DIVINITY.

Dr. Funk was born at Clifton, Ohio, in 1838, and was graduated as a Doctor of Divinity from Wittenberg College in 1860. During the next ten years he filled various pastorates and took a prominent part in the Prohibition movement. He last occupied the pulpit as pastor of St.
Matthew's English Lutheran Church in Brooklyn.

In 1873 he took up editorial work and edited various periodicals published by the Funk & Wagnalls Company. He was editor-in-chief of the Standard Dictionary and chairman of the editorial board that produced the Jewish Encyclopedia. He founded The Voice in 1890, The Literary Digest in 1898, and The Literary Digest in 1899, and he was actively engaged in his publishing business till two weeks ago, when he was stricken with indigestion. He occupied a beautiful home on Upper Mountain avenue, Montclair, for many years.

Recipes for Wrinkles and Bad Complexions

(From Art and Nature.)
Of all the beauty recipes in my scrap book, here are two that have always given complete satisfaction:

Wrinkle Remover—One ounce powdered saxolite, dissolved in ½ pint witch hazel, use as a wash lotion. It brings instan-taneous results.

Face Peeler—Pure mercerized wax, applied at night like cold cream, only not rinsed off; wash off in the morning. It exfoliates the worn-out skin to come off in tiny, almost invisible flakes, a little each day, until the fresh young under-skin is wholly in evidence. The beautiful rosin complexion thus obtained is not to be compared with one made over with cosmetics. An ounce of the wax is sufficient.

The ingredients named are inexpensive and can be found in any drug store.—

R&G CORSETS

A good corset is the foundation of an attractive toilette. Only the right model for your particular
gown to advantage.

Each R&G Corset is modeled after some individual figure, with one aim in view: to lessen the difference between the real and the ideal.

There is an R&G Corset model for your figure. Your corsetiere will help you to find it.

Mrs. Leslie Carter writes:

Have you seen the perfected R&G Abdomband that will positively stay in one place and will not ride up?

"My gowns always look their best, when worn on an R&G Corset."

MRS. LESLIE CARTER

The LAST TWO LECTURES

By Prof. Charles Munter
In the GIMBEL AUDITORIUM

Will Give His Famous Talks on Self-Development Through Deep Breathing

The enthusiastic audiences for the past two weeks have been the best evidence of the interest the public has displayed and we desire all our friends to take advantage of these last lectures Friday and Saturday afternoons, from 2:30 to 4:30 P. M. in the Auditorium, Eighth Floor, for they will learn valuable secrets of how to regulate the health of their bodies and ward off sickness through the science of deep breathing, if they will come and listen to this famous lecturer who has spent twenty years in developing himself through this method.

Prof. Munter is the inventor of the famous garment "NULIFE," which compels deep breathing, straightens round shoulders, expands the chest, reduces the abdomen and makes every man, woman and child an erect statue of health, and gives them the figure demanded by health and fashion.

In addition to his illustrated lectures, Prof. Munter demonstrates the added power which "NULIFE" gives to every man, woman and child through wearing this simple garment.

Prof. Munter's Lectures are so well known that further description is unnecessary. Spend a few moments in learning how valuable your health is to your individual success.

Prof. Munter advises you not to purchase any Spring garments until you have first tried on a "NULIFE."

Prof. Munter's Lectures are so simple that any child can benefit by them, and he invites the whole family, as his lectures on health interest everybody.
